

Visions and Voices and the USC Libraries have collaborated to create a series of resource guides that allow you to build on your experiences at many Visions and Voices events. Explore the resources listed below and continue your journey of inquiry and discovery!

"Cinematic Cervantes: Adapting Don Quixote to the Screen" explores the challenges of translating La Mancha to celluloid. Organized by Phil Ethington and Sherry Velasco of the USC College, Tyson Gaskill and Barbara Robinson of the USC Libraries, and Alessandro Ago and Marsha Kinder of the USC School of Cinematic Arts, the event includes a screening of Keith Fulton and Louis Pepe's Lost in La Mancha (2002). In conjunction, the USC Libraries are presenting the exhibition, When Windmills Are Giants: The Novel Adventures of Don Quixote.

Barbara Robinson has selected the following resources to help you further explore the challenges—and delights—of adapting Cervantes' pre-cinematic novel for film. Visit libguides.usc.edu/don_quixote for a complete multimedia research guide featuring additional resources for exploring the world of Don Quixote.
