The Nuclear Express and the Prevention of Nuclear Terror

A LECTURE BY THOMAS C. REED

USC LIBRARIES RESOURCE GUIDE

Visions and Voices presents a signature event featuring THOMAS REED, former nuclear weapons designer and Secretary of the Air Force and co-author of The Nuclear Express: A Political History of the Bomb and Its Proliferation. Reed will focus on why nations pursue nuclear weapons, why over a dozen would-be proliferators have turned from that path, and why a half-dozen other embryonic nuclear states forge ahead. The lecture will be followed by a discussion with USC SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS professor WAYNE GLASS and USC VITERBI SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING professor PRIYA VASHISHTA.

In conjunction, ROBERT LABAREE and NAJWA HANEL of the USC LIBRARIES have provided a selection of resources to help you further investigate the topic of nuclear proliferation. You can find a complete online guide to additional resources, including electronic databases, at libguides.usc.edu/NuclearExpress.
