Tao Lee and Vicky Lee, husband and wife, are broadcast journalists in Taiwan. Tao Lee was an early critic of Li Tenghui's presidency, but later, after the Democratic Progressive Party candidate, Chen Shui-bian, was elected president, they were both suspected of being closet supporters of the Pan-Blue Coalition (Chinese nationalist), as opposed to the Pan-Green Coalition (Taiwan nationalist) represented most prominently by President Chen. This is due to the Lees' persistent campaign to expose corrupt activities of Chen Shui-bian and his family. Their guiding principle has been: "Where there's evil, report the evil."

Please see the online version of this research guide at libguides.usc.edu/taolee for much more, including links to Taiwanese news sources on the Internet.
