

Kristin Chenoweth at the Hollywood Bowl

USC LIBRARIES RESOURCE GUIDE

Saturday, August 24, 2013, Hollywood Bowl, Hollywood

USC students will take a trip to the Hollywood Bowl to see Emmy- and Tony-winning actress and recording artist Kristin Chenoweth perform her first solo show. She will be joined by the preeminent Los Angeles Philharmonic for a very special evening of music and more. The uniquely talented and acclaimed star will perform from her Broadway, television and film successes (Wicked, Glee, Les Misérables), as well as some personal favorites, including time-honored greats and entertaining surprises.

STEPHANIE BONJACK of the USC Libraries has selected the following resources to help you learn more about this event. Visit the music research guide at <http://libguides.usc.edu/music> for even more resources.

Introduction

Kristin Chenoweth has a clear soprano voice and an entertaining stage presence. She played the role of Glinda in the hit musical Wicked. Chenoweth recently sang a parody of her Wicked song “Popular” on the Tonight Show with Jay Leno, in which she instructs Anthony Weiner on how to recover from his sexting scandal. You never know what surprises Chenoweth will bring to the stage!
