

Artists at Play Presents COWBOY VERSUS SAMURAI

USC LIBRARIES RESOURCE GUIDE

Sunday, September 29, 2013, Inner-City Arts, Los Angeles

USC students will see the Los Angeles premiere of Michael Golamco's acclaimed play Cowboy Versus Samurai. In this comic reimagining of Cyrano de Bergerac, Travis Park is a high-school English teacher and the only Korean American living in the dusty town of Breakneck, Wyoming. When Veronica Lee, a Korean American teacher from New York City, moves into town, he immediately falls for her. Travis must choose between the Asian and the American within himself as he pursues a love that may be only as real as the love letters he writes for someone else. Through irony, humor and social commentary, Cowboy Versus Samurai cleverly exposes the struggle of Asian Americans to find their place in the vast American landscape...and with each other.

KEN KLEIN and SUN-YOON LEE of the USC Libraries have selected the following resources to help you learn more about the play and other retellings of the classic story. View the online version of this guide at libguides.usc.edu/CowboyVersusSamurai or more resources, including reviews of the play, information about the playwright and background materials on Asian American theatre.
