

ARTISTS AT PLAY: 99 HISTORIES

USC LIBRARIES RESOURCE GUIDE

Sunday, September 21, 2014, The Lounge Theatre, Hollywood

Artists at Play presents 99 Histories, a powerful story about the bonds between mothers, daughters, sisters and aunts. Eunice, a 29-year-old Korean American cello prodigy, comes home pregnant and unmarried, and tries to mend her relationship with her mother. Haunted by violent memories, Eunice must confront her ghosts before she can move forward. In this riveting and poignant drama of memory, legacy and home, what is remembered might be made up, and the only homelands that seem to exist are imaginary.

KENNETH KLEIN of the USC Libraries has selected the following resources to help you learn more about 99 Histories and related themes. See the online version of this guide at <http://libguides.usc.edu/99histories> for more resources, including reviews of the play, a list of playwright Julia Cho's other works and an account of the rise of Asian American theatre.
