

Membership

All International Feuchtwanger Society members receive the IFS Newsletter from the International Feuchtwanger Society as a benefit of membership and are invited to participate in the Society's symposia. The Society welcomes contributions in any language for its Newsletter.

To join the International Feuchtwanger Society, please complete this membership form. Be sure to include your method of payment. Make checks payable to the USC Libraries (the IFS may be referenced in the notes portion of the check) in American currency only. Membership payment can also be made using a credit card (complete the attached credit card payment information below). Institutions may request an invoice for accounting purposes.

Renewal only (no need to fill in anything other than your name and the membership category unless there were changes)
