Chapter 036 of Phi Kappa Phi at the University of Southern California invites students to apply for a scholarship to support research or creative projects during the summer of 2015.

Award amount: Up to $1,000.

Eligibility: Any student who is a sophomore or junior at the University of Southern California during the Spring 2015 semester and has a minimum 3.25 cumulative grade point average is eligible to apply. Students graduating in the summer are ineligible.

Materials to Submit
Applicants must submit the following:

• 4 copies of the completed application form
• 4 copies of the one page project proposal
• 1 copy of transcripts for all post-secondary coursework
• 1 letter endorsing the student project from a USC faculty member

All application materials completed by the applicant should be typewritten in a font no smaller than 10 point.

The project proposal must be on standard US letter-size paper with one inch margins, and it must have a title that fits on one line. The proposal should provide information on the following points: i) The nature of the proposed research project and its significance, and ii) The research plan for the summer, including the specific goals, planned procedure, budget, and timeline.

The student’s project cannot be tied to research that is being conducted by a professor (i.e. the student cannot be the professor’s assistant on the project).

Deadline: The deadline for submission of applications is March 25, 2015, by 5:00 pm.
Application materials should be submitted in hard copy to the following location:

Phi Kappa Phi
All-University Honor Society
University of Southern California
Leavey Library Room 301
Los Angeles, CA 90089-2571
